

Prof. Volker Wieland Ph.D.

Managing Director and Professor for Monetary Economics, Institute for Monetary and Financial Stability (IMFS), Goethe University Frankfurt

Specialization

Macroeconomics

Monetary Theory and Policy

International Finance, Trade

Activities

since 2012 Managing Director and Professor for Monetary Economics, Institute for Monetary and Financial Stability (IMFS), Goethe University Frankfurt since 2012 Member of the Advisory Board to the Federal Ministry of Finance since 2011 Member of the Kronberger Kreis

2013 - 2022 Member of the German Council of Economic Experts

2000 - 2012 Professor of Monetary Theory and Policy, Goethe University Frankfurt

2008 - 2009 Willem Duisenberg Research Fellow, European Central Bank

2003 - 2009 Director of the Center for Financial Studies, Frankfurt am Main

2007 - 2008 Visiting Professor at the Stanford Center for International Development, Stanford University

2002 - 2006 Coordinating Editor of the Journal of Economic Dynamics and Control

1999 - 2004 Consultant at the European Central Bank, Frankfurt am Main

1995 - 2000 Senior Economist, Division for Monetary Affairs, United States Federal Reserve System, Washington DC

1995 Ph.D., Stanford University

Contact

E-Mail: infokronberger-kreisde

Contact at Home Institution

